

Lisa M. Hoel graduated from the University of Central Oklahoma with a Bachelor's Degree in Music Education. She studied with Jane Anne Barr and Feodora Steward. She was nominated Most Outstanding Music Senior Woman by the U.C.O. faculty in 1989. She was a member of Sigma Alpha Iota during college and currently a member of the Oklahoma Music Teacher's Association where she served as Parliamentarian, on the Theory and Auditions Committees and is certified in piano and flute. She plays the organ, accompanies the choir, and directs the children's choir at the First United Methodist Church in Guthrie. She operates an Independent Music Studio out of her home and is currently working on a provisional teaching certificate through OMTA in clarinet and will be completing her certification requirements in organ. She has also performed with the Pollard Theatre in Guthrie in their pit orchestra playing back-up piano, flute and clarinet. She also is the wife of Keith Hoel and mother of three kids, Kandace, Lindy and Aldin, all of which are the joys of her life.
